ABOUT // TENTANG IBI

The Indonesian Bankers Association or IBI (Ikatan Bankir Indonesia) was officially established on December 12th, 2005 as a result of the merger of the Indonesian Bankers Institute and Bankers Club Indonesia on July 28th, 2005. The establishment was witnessed by the Central Bank Governor and the Finance Minister of the Republic of Indonesia. IBI's vision is to become a professional association of the Indonesian bankers and to provide mutual benefits to its members among others in the areas of professional development, sound banking practices and good corporate governance implementation to support the government in developing a strong national economy through the following 6 main activities:

1. to unite the bankers of all banks operating in Indonesia,
2. to enhance professionalism and integrity of the bankers, to extensively assist the members,
3. to provide certification of professional competence to the members,
4. to be the professional partner of the banking authority and government in building a sound banking system,
5. to promote the discipline of the members through the Code of Ethics of Indonesian Bankers.
